GRANTS PROGRAM 2007

Over its twenty-year history, the Women's Trust has given out over two million dollars, across more than 300 projects, all through our own fundraising efforts.

The Victorian Women's Trust is seeking to fund ground-breaking projects that advance conditions for women living in Victoria.

The Trust has particular interest in funding innovative projects that lead to long-term socially progressive change. To make an application, please address the questions outlined in the Granting Guidelines:

Women's Circus

ANNUAL INTAKE of NEW MEMBERS

Once a year, the Women's Circus welcomes new members into its training program. The "New Women's" program is open to anyone and everyone (except men obviously, and women under 18, sorry) and it's HEAPS of fun, as well as a great way to exercise, meet people, learn fancy tricks, and brag that you ran away to join the circus!

Information Day

on Sunday February 4th, 11am - 1pm
at
Women's Circus
Drill Hall, 395 Barkly St, West Footscray.

If you're interested but can't attend, or would like more info, check out <http://www.womenscircus.org.au>

"Getting The Right Balance: Creating Family Friendly Workplaces"

A booklet for women in small non-government organisations.

Produced by WIRE and part funded through a VWT grant.

Contains an overview of major concepts and practical tips for overcoming common barriers when introducing family friendly practices into small workplaces.

To obtain a copy, contact the Trust on 9642-0422 or email women@vwt.org.au

SPAN Community House

The SPAN Volunteer Tutor Program recruits and trains volunteers to tutor English to asylum seekers, refugees and other migrants in Melbourne's northern suburbs. Volunteer tutors are matched individually to teach English one-to-one in learners' homes or other community locations. Accredited training in partnership with Adult Multicultural Education Services and Foundation House is offered to new volunteers.

VOLUNTEER TUTORS ARE NOW NEEDED!

The next free training for volunteers starts next Thursday the 8th of February from 6.30- 9 pm at the Northcote Town Hall, 189 High St, Northcote.

To find out more call Becky on 9480 1364 or email her at becky@spanhouse.org
